

Kriss Pachauri joins the BBRC Private Equity Investment Team

SYDNEY, 20th August 2018: BBRC Private Equity is pleased to announce the recruitment of Kriss Pachauri who will assume the role of Investment Manager. Kriss joins BBRC Private Equity after a successful investment banking career at Fort Street Advisers and Goldman Sachs.

“We are pleased that Kriss has joined us as our first hire in the investment team. Together we will be establishing BBRC Private Equity as a differentiated private equity business, leveraging BBRC’s unique history and capabilities with the support of Brett Blundy as Chairman of the Investment Committee. Our vision is to create a unique, high performing investment portfolio underpinned by BBRC’s investment philosophy and business culture.” BBRC Private Equity CEO Joseph Kim said.

Kriss is the first of several new hires expected to come on board with BBRC Private Equity over the next 6 months.

For more information, please email us: contact@bbrcpe.com

About BBRC Private Equity. Sydney-based private equity group established in April 2018 as part of BBRC Capital Management, the funds management division of Brett Blundy’s private investment company, BBRC. BBRC Private Equity was co-founded and is led by CEO Joseph Kim. It is a long-term investor, pursuing partnerships with business owners and leaders that have a vision of winning their market category.